

INTERNATIONAL SALES TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Effective from the 13th of September 2018

Specifications:

1. If you have questions or specification requirements from customs or quarantine regarding the specifications of our products The Trade Republic will assist with the export paperwork.
2. The Trade Republic will provide standard COA, SDS and specifications documents.
3. If you require a COA, SDS or specifications for your country or territory that is outside our standard documents, The Trade Republic will need to obtain a quote for this work from a third-party laboratory. Once we have all the costs we will provide you with an invoice and payment will need to be made prior to all tests being started.
4. Please ensure you ask for copies of the current specifications for each product you intend to export/import prior to placing your order.
5. If you (the client) do not ask for the specifications prior to shipping, The Trade Republic will not be held accountable for any non-conformance issues at the receiver's end.

Export Paperwork:

6. The Trade Republic is not responsible for any mistakes on the import/export paperwork, it is the customer's responsibility to ensure all paperwork is correctly completed and submitted prior to shipping.
7. The Trade Republic will complete all paperwork that would be reasonably expected for a manufacturer to complete for international shipping.
8. All paperwork needs to be requested at the time of order, i.e. any shipping, SDS, SLI, COA, BOL etc. must all be listed either on the purchase order or sent in a separate email at the time of purchase.
9. The Trade Republic will not be responsible for any shipping or customs clearance delays if all documents are not requested at the time of order.
10. When a Phytosanitary, Manufacture Declaration, and ISTA Orange Germination Certificates for import/export might be required. The Trade Republic can assist with documentation – however an administration fee will be applied.
11. Some documents might not be available if they are not requested in advance. As the documents become available The Trade Republic will send them either directly to the client or the shipping company.

INTERNATIONAL SALES TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Returns:

- 12. All returns are at The Trade Republic's discretion. The Trade Republic will only authorise a return if a product does not meet the specifications in the documents provided by us.
- 13. If you did not ask for the specification or required documents to clear customs and or quarantine prior to shipping no return will be provided.
- 14. If The Trade Republic does authorise a return the products must be returned in their original condition or The Trade Republic will either reject the return 100% or issue a minimum restocking fee of 30%.
- 15. No matter who is at fault, if The Trade Republic authorises a return, all return costs including freight, customs and tax clearances will be the responsibility of the client from point to point.
- 16. If the returned product/s arrive at our factory damaged, no matter who damaged the goods or at what point during the shipping they were damaged points 14 and 15 still applies.
- 17. If a return is rejected by The Trade Republic, it is the customer's responsibility to collect all goods within seven days or The Trade Republic will dispose of the goods at the client's expense unless prior arrangements are made.
- 18. Any storage costs will be passed on while waiting for a rejected return longer than seven days will be passed onto the client.
- 19. If there are extreme circumstances and The Trade Republic has reviewed the circumstances, and The Trade Republic authorises a courtesy return (I.E. The Trade Republic authorises a return when it is no fault of The Trade Republic or the product meets all the specifications on the documentation) all return costs including freight, customs and tax clearances will be the responsibility of the client from point to point. Please note points 14 and 15 still applies.

Legal Documents, Solicitor and Notary Fees:

- 20. All legal documentation, solicitor's and notary's fees that might be required for each country are the responsibility of the purchaser (the client). The Trade Republic is happy to assist with this and provide quotes but all costs must be pre-paid prior to The Trade Republic engaging on your behalf.
